EMILIE, Nov. 6 — A West Virginia man was killed last night at 8.45 and two others injured in a motor accident at the intersection of Oxford Valley-Tullytown and Emilie-Fallsington roads, near here.

According to police, William Elsey Parker, Keyser City, W. Va., was operating a vehicle north on Oxford Valley-Tullytown road and it is believed failed to stop at the stop sign at the intersection and collided with a vehicle travelling west on Emilie-Fallsington road operated by Leo Dugan, Pine street, Bristol.

The injured were removed to Mercer hospital, Trenton, N. J., by Bucks County Rescue Squad, where Wm. Parker was pronounced dead upon arrival. Riding with Parker was his nephew, Alton Parker, 1229 Barrett street, Bristol Terrace II, who sustained lacerations of head. William Parker, police say, was pinned under the car. Alton Parker was thrown out of the car by the impact. The vehicle turned over after the crash, and then rolled over Wm. Parker, crushing him to death.

The elder Parker, police said, had been visiting his nephew. Both vehicles were reported a total wreck and were towed from the scene.

Investigation was made by Officers Hepler and Robert Hibbs, of Bristol township.

Officer Herman Esterline, of Bristol borough, who was off duty at the time passed the scene shortly after the crash, and sent for aid.

Gov. John S. Fine to Have GOP-Dominated Assembly

But It Will Be Tough Sledding for Administration in House with Strength Cut

By John Paget
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6—President-elect Eisenhower's sweep of Pennsylvania assures Gov. John S. Fine today of a Republican-dominated General Assembly in 1953 but it'll be tough sledding for the Administration in the House.

The Senate will be controlled by the GOP 32-18 but the story is different in the House where all revenue - raising legislation constitutionally must originate.

The reason is that despite the sweep in Tuesday's balloting, the GOP failed to add to its 1951 margin but instead lost 10 seats and trimmed its strength in the House to 110 seats or a slim five votes more than needed to pass bills. The Democrats will seat 98 members.

The Senate margin is comfortably safe for Republicans, although it is two votes shy of the constitutional 34 needed to confirm Fine's executive appointments without calling on the Democrats for help.

Editorial

WHAT EISENHOWER WILL FIND

This American nation is in far worse shape than is generally believed. All the political propaganda in the world, all the recent talk that "we never had it so good," doesn't change a single one of the basic facts.

We are far out-mortgaged with borrowings against future generations which probably will never attempt to repay the debt in anything except devalued dollars. That's inflation.

The debt totals approximately the true value of the nation as a going concern, and the debt cannot fail to rise substantially before it drops, since gigantic obligations to which the Truman regime committed the government have not yet shown up as deficits.

There is very little question that four years more of the New Deal, coupled with a supposed "vindication" of the past record and a "mandate" for more of the same, would have finished the job of bankrupting the country—that is to say, would have forced it into a sort of military receivership or to "dictatorship of the proletariat," which would have gone by the soft name of welfare-state, but would have been as tight a despotism as history records.

This was literally the last call. Had the Republicans lost, the economy of the country would have been smashed, and in its collapse would have gone down the constitutional pattern of free republican government.

The victory of General Eisenhower and the rest of the Republican ticket most literally snatched the American people from the jaws of disaster.

How clearly the American people perceive this no one can say with certainty. Unquestionably they see it at least, in the Biblical phrase, "as through a glass, darkly." Their vote Tuesday was a protest vote—a tidal wave of

Borough Council Amends Sign Regulations Here

Fees Are Set for Permits And in Cases of Appeal To Adjustment Board

Bristol Borough Council last evening amended the zoning ordinance of 1951 to permit roof-top signs in the industrial district of Bristol. The change will take effect in ten days. Council also adopted a resolution, effective now, setting permit fees of $5 for signs, construction and use and occupancy and $15 in cases appealed to the Board of Adjustment.

The zoning amendment was adopted after a public hearing at which no objection was voiced. In reply to an inquiry by Borough Engineer Livingston Joyce, John Fullman, borough solicitor, said the change will not permit flashing electric signs on the rooftops, as they are banned by the zoning code. Fullman said signs will be allowed on roofs of all-type buildings in the industrial area.

Twelve members of Council attended the meeting. In the absence of Council President Francis J. Byers, Burgess I. J. Hetherington, Sr., opened the special session. George Duffy was elected president pro-tem for the evening, and Joseph Ferry was temporary secretary.

Other councilmen attending were Wm. H. Pearson, Edward J. Riley, Joseph DeLissio, John S. Lynn, Wm. J. Strobele, Nicholas F. Pascale, William W. Wallace, William J. McHugh and Michael Spinelli.

LATEST NEWS BULLETINS

Son Leaves Sick Bed and Fatally Shoots Father

Quakertown, Pa.—A 19-year-old youth, ill with pneumonia, left his bed today and fatally shot his father with a rifle in the kitchen of their house.

The victim was Joseph Ziemons, 60, a retired toolmaker.

After the shooting, police said the son, Werner Joseph Ziemons, returned to his first floor bedroom and got back into bed.

County Detective Fred J. Kohler said the shooting took place while the elder Ziemons was arguing at breakfast with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Ziemons, Werner's wife.

Kohler said young Ziemons fired the rifle from a distance of about eight feet, striking his father below the heart.

Bucks County Coroner J. T. Ferris ordered the body removed to a funeral home where an autopsy will be performed.

Young Ziemons was taken to the Community Hospital at Quakertown and placed under guard.

Authorities said a murder charge will be placed against him. The youth was employed as a cook at a diner operated by his mother, Mrs. Phillipine Ziemons, on the Bethlehem Pike near Quakertown.

Mrs. Ziemons was in the house at the time of the shooting. Also there was her daughter, Mrs. Maria Reed. Mrs. Ziemons has two other sons, Eric and Ewald, both in the service.

Manning of Steel Plant Is Mammoth Program, Jaycees Are Informed

Industrial Relations Head Outlines Selection And Training Practices

TULLYTOWN, Nov. 6 — Just as much careful planning is needed in building up the personnel which will man the mammoth Fairless Works of the U. S. Steel Company as was required in the construction of the plant, declared an executive last night.

Fred B. Lafferty, superintendent of industrial relations for the firm's Fairless Works, talked about the manpower problems in an address to members of the Lower Bucks County Junior Chamber of Commerce last night at Pennsbury Inn near here.

"Our undertaking, here in Bucks County," said Lafferty, "is unusual in the history of the steel industry, since, in the engineering, building and placing into production of this great new integrated steel mill, we have started with nothing more than a visionary and courageous idea.

"Within the short space of a few years we expect to be operating a huge, modern and efficient steel producing plant on a site which, less than two years ago, was a community of farms. Just as we started with a visionary idea of a new steel producing plant, so have we started from scratch to build a kind of management and production organization we feel would be best fitted to operate our new facilities.

"'Bearing in mind that United States Steel has expended many tens of thousands of dollars in buildings, equipment and tools for every employee of the Fairless Works," continued the speaker, "and that maximum efficiency in economy must be effected in our operations, it becomes necessary to exercise the same careful planning in the development of our operating organization as has characterized

Consternation Reigns at Delhaas School Board Meeting Over Announcement of Plan To Incorporate Levittown Into A Borough

'No Right to Invest in Something We Know Nothing About,' Says Director

By Staff Reporter

Consternation reigned in the Delhaas school board meeting last night over the announcement made Saturday that steps will be taken to incorporate the Levittown settlement into a borough.

The feelings board members expressed at the meeting in Delhaas high school building, might be summed up in the expression of William Clifton, speaking of proposed permanent school facilities for Levittown, "We don't have any right to invest public funds in something we know nothing about."

Nearly every board member spoke out concerning the latest reported move in the actions of the builders of the new community.

The board heard a report of students attending the Delhaas school as of the first of October. These enrollment figures are those used in determining the share in the Delhas budget which must be paid by Tullytown.

A request for information concerning the school board and the schools under its jurisdiction from the chairman of the educational committee of Levittown Civic Association was read before the board. The committee plan of conducting the joint board meeting was discussed, need for a football field was emphasized, and one teacher was hired to teach in the Delhaas system.

Two members of the Levittown Civic Association, Elbert Kohli, and Albert Eastburn were present at the meeting in an attempt to get better acquainted with the board and its actions.

The report that an attempt is expected to be made to get borough status for Levittown, brought sharp fire from both Bristol township and

Ike Has Solid Backing For Clean-Up Program

Will Seek Solution to War In Korea Before Taking Office in Washington

By James Lee
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 — President-elect Eisenhower today won solid congressional backing for his Republican "peace and clean-up" program and indicated that he will seek an on-the-spot solution of the Korean war before his inauguration.

Sent to the White House by the heaviest popular outpouring in the nation's history, Gen. Ike parlayed his personal landslide into GOP control of the House of Representatives and an even division of the Senate, with Vice-President - elect Nixon holding the deciding vote.

The 83rd Congress, which will welcome Eisenhower as the nation's first Republican president since 1932, shapes up with 225 GOP House members, seven more than the 218 required for control.

In the Senate, defeat of Michigan's Democratic Sen. Blair Moody by Rep. Charles E. Potter, legless veteran of World War II., gave the GOP 48 seats. Ex - Republican Wayne Morse of Oregon, now listed as an Independent, is expected to vote with the Democrats, but in the votes Nixon is the "equalizer."

Eisenhower, on the basis of the latest returns, swamped Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson of Illinois 442 to 89 in the electoral voting, carried 39 states to Stevenson's nine, and in the record-shattering popular poll amassed 31,925,143 votes to Stevenson's 25,594,317.

Gov. John S. Fine to Have GOP-Dominated Assembly

But It Will Be Tough Sledding for Administration in House with Strength Cut

By John Paget
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6—President-elect Eisenhower's sweep of Pennsylvania assures Gov. John S. Fine today of a Republican-dominated General Assembly in 1953 but it'll be tough sledding for the Administration in the House.

The Senate will be controlled by the GOP 32-18 but the story is different in the House where all revenue - raising legislation constitutionally must originate.

The reason is that despite the sweep in Tuesday's balloting, the GOP failed to add to its 1951 margin but instead lost 10 seats and trimmed its strength in the House to 110 seats or a slim five votes more than needed to pass bills. The Democrats will seat 98 members.

The Senate margin is comfortably safe for Republicans, although it is two votes shy of the constitutional 34 needed to confirm Fine's executive appointments without calling on the Democrats for help.

MOON CRIME

RALEIGH, N. C. — (INS) — The old theory that criminals operate mostly on moonlight nights has been confirmed by North Carolina's State Department of Motor Vehicles. Preliminary answers to inquiries addressed to sheriffs and highway patrolmen in the state indicate that a full moon affects adversely the behavior of criminals.

WHAT EISENHOWER WILL FIND

This American nation is in far worse shape than is generally believed. All the political propaganda in the world, all the recent talk that "we never had it so good," doesn't change a single one of the basic facts.

We are far out-mortgaged with borrowings against future generations which probably will never attempt to repay the debt in anything except devalued dollars. That's inflation.

The debt totals approximately the true value of the nation as a going concern, and the debt cannot fail to rise substantially before it drops, since gigantic obligations to which the Truman regime committed the government have not yet shown up as deficits.

There is very little question that four years more of the New Deal, coupled with a supposed "vindication" of the past record and a "mandate" for more of the same, would have finished the job of bankrupting the country—that is to say, would have forced it into a sort of military receivership or to "dictatorship of the proletariat," which would have gone by the soft name of welfare-state, but would have been as tight a despotism as history records.

This was literally the last call. Had the Republicans lost, the economy of the country would have been smashed, and in its collapse would have gone down the constitutional pattern of free republican government.

The victory of General Eisenhower and the rest of the Republican ticket most literally snatched the American people from the jaws of disaster.

How clearly the American people perceive this no one can say with certainty. Unquestionably they see it at least, in the Biblical phrase, "as through a glass, darkly." Their vote Tuesday was a protest vote—a tidal wave of

Girl Scouts Continuing Fund Drive for New Camp

Site Near Quakertown Is Visited by 1200 Parents; Sales Held by Troops

Members of Girl Scout troops throughout the county are this week continuing their efforts to raise money for the organization's camp fund.

Plans call for the establishment of a camp on a site located near Quakertown on the Richlandtown-Weisel road.

Girl Scout officials said establishment of this porposed camp will be a substantial asset to the organization since it would be within easy driving distance from home.

More than 1,200 parents have visited the proposed camp site during recent weeks, said a Girl Scout spokesman.

Funds for the project have been raised through food and cookie sales, greeting card sales and other activities. Among troops who have already contributed to the fund and their leaders are:

Troop 75, Cornwells, Mrs. Stanley Vilius; Brownie Troop 52, Langhorne, Mrs. Raymond Gross; Brownie Troop 80, Langhorne, Mrs. H. L. Weber; Troop 113, Feasterville, Mrs. W. E. Comb; Troop 91, Penns Park, Mrs. Harry Herbott, III.; Troop 131, Perkasie, Mrs. Lloyd Lowery; Troop 32, Richlandtown, Mrs. Paul Reickenbach; and Brownie Troop 13, Doylestown, Mrs. Charles Emig.

Officials said the Brownies were able to match their older sisters in the amount of money turned over to the camp fund.

Borough Council Amends Sign Regulations Here

Fees Are Set for Permits And in Cases of Appeal To Adjustment Board

Bristol Borough Council last evening amended the zoning ordinance of 1951 to permit roof-top signs in the industrial district of Bristol. The change will take effect in ten days. Council also adopted a resolution, effective now, setting permit fees of $5 for signs, construction and use and occupancy and $15 in cases appealed to the Board of Adjustment.

The zoning amendment was adopted after a public hearing at which no objection was voiced. In reply to an inquiry by Borough Engineer Livingston Joyce, John Fullman, borough solicitor, said the change will not permit flashing electric signs on the rooftops, as they are banned by the zoning code. Fullman said signs will be allowed on roofs of all-type buildings in the industrial area.

Twelve members of Council attended the meeting. In the absence of Council President Francis J. Byers, Burgess I. J. Hetherington, Sr., opened the special session. George Duffy was elected president pro-tem for the evening, and Joseph Ferry was temporary secretary.

Other councilmen attending were Wm. H. Pearson, Edward J. Riley, Joseph DeLissio, John S. Lynn, Wm. J. Strobele, Nicholas F. Pascale, William W. Wallace, William J. McHugh and Michael Spinelli.

Manning of Steel Plant Is Mammoth Program, Jaycees Are Informed

Industrial Relations Head Outlines Selection And Training Practices

TULLYTOWN, Nov. 6 — Just as much careful planning is needed in building up the personnel which will man the mammoth Fairless Works of the U. S. Steel Company as was required in the construction of the plant, declared an executive last night.

Fred B. Lafferty, superintendent of industrial relations for the firm's Fairless Works, talked about the manpower problems in an address to members of the Lower Bucks County Junior Chamber of Commerce last night at Pennsbury Inn near here.

"Our undertaking, here in Bucks County," said Lafferty, "is unusual in the history of the steel industry, since, in the engineering, building and placing into production of this great new integrated steel mill, we have started with nothing more than a visionary and courageous idea.

"Within the short space of a few years we expect to be operating a huge, modern and efficient steel producing plant on a site which, less than two years ago, was a community of farms. Just as we started with a visionary idea of a new steel producing plant, so have we started from scratch to build a kind of management and production organization we feel would be best fitted to operate our new facilities.

"Bearing in mind that United States Steel has expended many tens of thousands of dollars in buildings, equipment and tools for every employee of the Fairless Works," continued the speaker, "and that maximum efficiency in economy must be effected in our operations, it becomes necessary to exercise the same careful planning in the development of our operating organization as has characterized

Quakertown, Pa.—A 19-year-old youth, ill with pneumonia, left his bed today and fatally shot his father with a rifle in the kitchen of their house.

The victim was Joseph Ziemons, 60, a retired toolmaker.

After the shooting, police said the son, Werner Joseph Ziemons, returned to his first floor bedroom and got back into bed.

County Detective Fred J. Kohler said the shooting took place while the elder Ziemons was arguing at breakfast with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Ziemons, Werner's wife.

Kohler said young Ziemons fired the rifle from a distance of about eight feet, striking his father below the heart.

Bucks County Coroner J. T. Ferris ordered the body removed to a funeral home where an autopsy will be performed.

Young Ziemons was taken to the Community Hospital at Quakertown and placed under guard.

Authorities said a murder charge will be placed against him. The youth was employed as a cook at a diner operated by his mother, Mrs. Phillipine Ziemons, on the Bethlehem Pike near Quakertown.

Mrs. Ziemons was in the house at the time of the shooting. Also there was her daughter, Mrs. Maria Reed. Mrs. Ziemons has two other sons, Eric and Ewald, both in the service.

'No Right to Invest in Something We Know Nothing About,' Says Director

By Staff Reporter

Consternation reigned at the Delhaas school board meeting last night over the announcement made Saturday that steps will be taken to incorporate the Levittown settlement into a borough.

The feelings board members expressed at the meeting in Delhaas high school building, might be summed up in the expression of William Clifton, speaking of proposed permanent school facilities for Levittown, "We don't have any right to invest public funds in something we know nothing about."

Nearly every board member spoke out concerning the latest reported move in the actions of the builders of the new community.

The board heard a report of students attending the Delhaas school as of the first of October. These enrollment figures are those used in determining the share in the Delhas budget which must be paid by Tullytown.

A request for information concerning the school board and the schools under its jurisdiction from the chairman of the educational committee of Levittown Civic Association was read before the board. The committee plan of conducting the joint board meeting was discussed, need for a football field was emphasized, and one teacher was hired to teach in the Delhaas system.

Two members of the Levittown Civic Association, Elbert Kohli, and Albert Eastburn were present at the meeting in an attempt to get better acquainted with the board and its actions.

The report that an attempt is expected to be made to get borough status for Levittown, brought sharp fire from both Bristol township and

Ike Has Solid Backing For Clean-Up Program

Will Seek Solution to War In Korea Before Taking Office in Washington

By James Lee
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 — President-elect Eisenhower today won solid congressional backing for his Republican "peace and clean-up" program and indicated that he will seek an on-the-spot solution of the Korean war before his inauguration.

Sent to the White House by the heaviest popular outpouring in the nation's history, Gen. Ike parlayed his personal landslide into GOP control of the House of Representatives and an even division of the Senate, with Vice-President - elect Nixon holding the deciding vote.

The 83rd Congress, which will welcome Eisenhower as the nation's first Republican president since 1932, shapes up with 225 GOP House members, seven more than the 218 required for control.

In the Senate, defeat of Michigan's Democratic Sen. Blair Moody by Rep. Charles E. Potter, legless veteran of World War II., gave the GOP 48 seats. Ex - Republican Wayne Morse of Oregon, now listed as an Independent, is expected to vote with the Democrats, but in tie votes Nixon is the "equalizer."

Eisenhower, on the basis of the latest returns, swamped Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson of Illinois 442 to 89 in the electoral voting, carried 39 states to Stevenson's nine, and in the record-shattering popular poll amassed 31,925,143 votes to Stevenson's 25,594,317.

NO SCANDAL

Defenders of big-time college football are entitled to a sigh of relief. It was disclosed that an attempt had been made to bribe three University of Maryland players to shave the score in the game with LSU but the players had immediately reported the offer.

So there was no scandal to call attention to football at Maryland, which is a large-scale enterprise returning financial rewards and valuable advertising at the cost of what is known as overemphasis, including special consideration to football men.

There was no scandal and those persons with a stake in the status quo will be quick to point out that the honesty of three players was all that was needed to prevent it. And that is something that cannot be refuted. But there is more to be said.

The fact that a bribe was offered is proof that the conditions that produced the shocking basketball scandals exposed last winter are still in existence. If these conditions do exist, then, sooner or later, that sorry story will be repeated.

Like causes produce like effects. There is no getting away from that law. If gamblers found it profitable to corrupt college basketball players before big games were played, then they will try to corrupt college football players if they think they can turn a dishonest penny by fixing a gridiron contest.

And in time they will find one or several weaklings who, in order to eke out their incomes from playing the game, will agree to betray their schools, teams, coaches and teammates.

If such sordid betrayals are to be prevented, the surest way is to remove their causes. The medicine may seem harsh to youngsters who want to capitalize on their athletic ability, to coaches who earn fat salaries by producing winning teams, to college heads who have used prowess on the gridiron to get their schools fame, students and money.

But all that is necessary is the will to put sports like football and basketball on the plane occupied by track and baseball. It is being done in some colleges.

A Cleveland woman won a divorce because her husband refused to provide a veterinarian for her horse. Other women are dissatisfied because their husbands do not provide Cadillacs for their transportation.

Kansas is harvesting a $600,000,000 wheat crop, which would be enough money to run the federal government a few hours on some quiet Sunday afternoon.

Congress has adjourned and members have returned home to look after their political fences. Many will undoubtedly find them badly in need of repair, in view of the tax situation.

What Eisenhower Will Find

repudiation of nearly everything the Fair Deal has come to stand for.

The manner in which all chief protagonists of the "new order" and the welfare-state concepts were singled out for special punishment is proof of the basic disturbance of mind the public has felt. DiSalle, Benton—call the roll, and note how the shining targets of left-wingishness got the works from the voters!

The American people lowered the boom on a twenty-year experiment which, in many aspects, has been alien to our own national concepts of propriety and sound government.

As has happened a thousand times in lesser fields, the moment someone stood up courageously and opposed the philosophy of the New Deal, it collapsed like a house of cards.

What General Eisenhower will find when he comes to sit in the White House as President depends in great degree upon what the American people expect.

If they look upon him primarily as their rescuer and champion, who has saved them from catastrophes akin to those suffered by scores of other free peoples around the world—then the new President's path will be rose-strewn and happy.

But if the people expect some sort of magic—if they expect to see the Korean tangle solved overnight, and the dollar's value restored by a single ingenious law, and the fading status of Uncle Sam's international prestige revived by a gesture; if they expect that we can become a solid, solvent united nation once again without some equivalent of Churchill's "blood, sweat, toil and tears"—then disappointments are inevitably ahead.

In the demoralized, sundered state of national affairs, there is neither the wherewithal to finance glowing new schemes of artificial prosperity and grandeur, nor is there a sufficient workable majority in Congress to put through any program except one so sound and simple and practical that members of all parties can cheerfully indorse it.

General Eisenhower comes, in reality, more as a fire department than as an architect. The House of Government is burning down, and the fire must be extinguished, and the wreckage appraised, and the extent of the damage estimated, before there can be serious thought concerning future interior decoration.

Today's Quiet Moment

By the Rev. Glenn H. Wampole,
Pastor Zion Evan. Lutheran Church

Deut. 33:27 — "The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

O Most Loving Father, Who willest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of Thee, and to cast all our care on Thee, Who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which Thou hast manifested unto us in Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

the creation of our physical facilities.

"To this end, starting with our top management and supervisory organization, extreme care has been exercised to hand-pick every man for his individual responsibility in the organization structure of the Fairless Works. This has been no small task, since, as I am sure you will realize, the limited number of management and supervisory positions available at Fairless Works during its initial program were much sought after among experienced and highly competent men throughout the industry.

"They were quick to see that a place in our organization would open up opportunity unlimited for development in their careers in the steel industry. There were many applicants for every position in our management organization, and many qualified people were considered for almost every job before the final selection was made. As a consequence of the care which was exercised in the selection of our people, we are confident that we have assembled the best qualified operating team to be found anywhere in the steel industry.

"One day a week, all day, for ten weeks, members of our top management organization attended training conferences in which top-level officials of United States Steel Company and department heads discussed in great detail every conceivable phase of policy, procedure and methods, as well as the most advanced operating practices, which bear upon the many facets of management and operation of a modern steel mill. Training programs of this kind are not unusual in the steel industry, but never before in the history of the industry has such a program been designed to run the full gamut of management responsibility. The result is that members of our management team assumed their new responsibilities at Fairless Works sharing the same knowledge, the identical purpose, and mutuality of interest in the development of an efficient operating team.

"Very much the same type of program has been developed and put to use in the training of other supervisory personnel from the level of general foreman down to the turn foreman in the various departments of the plant."

Lafferty told the group of other various phases of the personnel program, including the methods of selection of persons for the many posts and the methods of training those selected.

Tullytown borough members of the joint board. The status of the John Fitch school, presently under construction in the Stonybrook section of Levittown was questioned by board members.

Clarence Young, secretary, explained that the school was undertaken as an obligation of Bristol township school board and the authority and would be built, but that the status of its operation within a new borough would be in question.

The whole proposed-borough-status-for-Levittown matter was questioned by William Parr who said that he thought that if the matter ever came into the courts, the courts would certainly take into consideration whether such a move would put Tullytown in a "bad financial position."

Parr further questioned the whole affair when he said he thought that "after all it isn't up to him (Levitt) it's up to the people living there."

Taylor brought up the fact that the John Fitch School had been started and ground had not yet been broken for the George Taylor School in Croydon.

"How do you suppose other people feel about building first in the new sections?" he asked. "We were under extreme pressure to put up other schools before the John Fitch school," he said.

"In the spring," continued Taylor, "Levitt told us he had absolutely no intent to incorporate."

Young complained that it was another situation that arose from the fact that they had nothing in writing from Levitt.

"Another time we had nothing in writing," he continued, "was when we were promised the community building for use as classrooms." According to Young it was in August when Levitt advised the board that the community building could not be used for classrooms, and that the school would have to make use of the Wistar Institute.

"Then he told us he would arrange to help provide a car pool," stated Young.

As a result of the failure of the car pool idea the board was "forced" to go out and buy school buses, Young explained.

"The cost of those buses meant two mills on our tax overnight," commented William Vetter.

Figures on enrollment at the Delhaas high school as of October 1, and which are used to compute the share of the cost of the school which must be borne by Bristol township and Tullytown borough showed that as of October 1, there was a total enrollment of 989 children at the school (this figure is now past the 1,000 mark), of this total 930 attend from Bristol township and 59 from Tullytown borough. Levittown accounts for 35 of these students. Of the 59 Tullytown contributes, 25 are from Levittown-Tullytown, and the remainder are from Tullytown outside Levittown.

These figures show that 94 per cent of the students are from Bristol township and approximately 6% are from Tullytown borough. It will be on this basis that 1953 budget costs will be allocated.

Total budget for the present school years is $213,023, out of which Bristol township pays $198,991, and Tullytown borough pays $18,032.

Ulrich A. Frank, 61 Leisure Lane, Levittown, chairman of the educational committee of Levittown Civic Association, requested detailed information from the school board concerning its past actions and the problems confronting it in the future. The board expressed that it would like to answer the problems but felt that it could not take the time from a regular meeting night. The Levittowners were referred to the school code and laws of boroughs and townships, and contact the Bristol Township Civic Association, because they were familiar with much that had taken place in the joint school board.

The proposal to conduct joint board meetings on a committee basis was tabled for the time being when members of the Tullytown board said that they thought they would be able to attend the Delhaas joint board meetings.

Miller spoke out in favor of a football field for the 1953 games. Thomas W. Elliott, of 3670 Newport road, West Bristol, was hired to teach in the Delhaas School.

Democrats, as in the past, will use the two votes as a lever to pry favor from Republicans.

Because of the free-wheeling nature of the House, as a result of its relatively large membership, the five votes will not give the next leadership much leeway. The ever-present bogey of a bolt by self-styled Independents, coupled with the usual absences due to illness or press of private affairs, will force the GOP leadership to carefully chart its course.

4-H Achievement Day Is Set for November 8th

482 Bucks County Girls and Boys to Review and Point Up Accomplishments

November 8th is National 4-H Achievement Day, a day when emphasis is on 4-H Clubs, the largest rural youth organization in the world. The more than two million club members in the United States, Alaska, and Puerto Rico (almost 29,000 of them in Penna.) have completed a year's effort toward their goals.

In Bucks county, the 482 boys and girls in agricultural and homemaking clubs will review and point up the accomplishments of their projects.

The homemaking project of Clothing, "It's Fun to Cook," Dinner Club, and "When You Entertain" were completed in late summer. Ninety per cent of the girls participating completed their projects.

There are 16 different agricultural projects including such projects as dairy, poultry, baby beef, garden, bees, field corn and potatoes.

Community service is an important activity of most clubs. Some of the services they have done are: cleaned community buildings and grounds; made garments for Needlework Guild; sent cookies and afghan to Valley Forge Veterans Hospital; gave canned foods to hospitals; collected food for family whose home was destroyed by fire; participated in community fairs through booths, exhibits, and fashion revue; took part in the 4th of July and Christmas parade. Other clubs have contributed money to such worthwhile causes as the County Blind Association, CARE, Easter seals, local fire companies, the cancer crusade, etc.

Club members held bake sales to raise money to send girls to camp. One club was able to buy used sewing machines with their profits.

Bucks county 4-H'ers participateded in county, state and national events as well as those of local clubs. Among these were home economics and agricultural district camps held with other counties, leadership school and club week at State College, National Club Congress in Chicago and National 4-H Club Week in Washington, D. C.

Twelve local clubs have made contributions ($52.71) to the National 4-H Center in Washington, D. C.

4-H activities are carried on through the Bucks County Agricultural Extension Association whose representatives are: William F. Greenawalt, County Agent; Paul T. Rothrock, assistant county agent; Frances Vannoy, home economics representative, and Gertrude Griffin, assistant home economics representative.

Much of the success of club leadership is due to the efforts of local men and women in the various 4-H neighborhoods. Those clubs which have been active in 1952 are: Buckingham, Durham, Edgewood, Falls, Great Swamp, Hilltown, Newtown, Newville, North Penn, Richboro, Unami, Carversville, Danboro, Feasterville, Point Pleasant, Southampton, Springtown.

4-H Achievement Day Is Set for November 8th

482 Bucks County Girls and Boys to Review and Point Up Accomplishments

November 8th is National 4-H Achievement Day, a day when emphasis is on 4-H Clubs, the largest rural youth organization in the world. The more than two million club members in the United States, Alaska, and Puerto Rico (almost 29,000 of them in Penna.) have completed a year's effort toward their goals.

In Bucks county, the 482 boys and girls in agricultural and homemaking clubs will review and point up the accomplishments of their projects.

The homemaking project of Clothing, "It's Fun to Cook," Dinner Club, and "When You Entertain" were completed in late summer. Ninety per cent of the girls participating completed their projects.

There are 16 different agricultural projects including such projects as dairy, poultry, baby beef, garden, bees, field corn and potatoes.

Community service is an important activity of most clubs. Some of the services they have done are: cleaned community buildings and grounds; made garments for Needlework Guild; sent cookies and afghan to Valley Forge Veterans Hospital; gave canned foods to hospitals; collected food for family whose home was destroyed by fire; participated in community fairs through booths, exhibits, and fashion revue; took part in the 4th of July and Christmas parade. Other clubs have contributed money to such worthwhile causes as the County Blind Association, CARE, Easter seals, local fire companies, the cancer crusade, etc.

Club members held bake sales to raise money to send girls to camp. One club was able to buy used sewing machines with their profits.

Bucks county 4-H'ers participateded in county, state and national events as well as those of local clubs. Among these were home economics and agricultural district camps held with other counties, leadership school and club week at State College, National Club Congress in Chicago and National 4-H Club Week in Washington, D. C.

Twelve local clubs have made contributions ($52.71) to the National 4-H Center in Washington, D. C.

4-H activities are carried on through the Bucks County Agricultural Extension Association whose representatives are: William F. Greenawalt, County Agent; Paul T. Rothrock, assistant county agent; Frances Vannoy, home economics representative, and Gertrude Griffin, assistant home economics representative.

Much of the success of club leadership is due to the efforts of local men and women in the various 4-H neighborhoods. Those clubs which have been active in 1952 are: Buckingham, Durham, Edgewood, Falls, Great Swamp, Hilltown, Newtown, Newville, North Penn, Richboro, Unami, Carversville, Danboro, Feasterville, Point Pleasant, Southampton, Springtown.

KIDNEYS MUST REMOVE EXCESS WASTE

Nagging backache, loss of pep and energy, headaches and dizziness may be due to slow-down of kidney function. Doctors say good kidney function is very important to good health. When some everyday condition, such as stress and strain, causes this important function to slow down, many folks suffer nagging backache—feel miserable. Minor bladder irritations due to cold or wrong diet may cause getting up nights or frequent passages.

Don't neglect your kidneys if these conditions bother you. Try Doan's Pills—a mild diuretic. Used successfully by millions for over 50 years. It's amazing how many times Doan's give happy relief from these discomforts—help the 15 miles of kidney tubes and filters flush out waste. Get Doan's Pills today!

League of Women Voters To Organize In Levittown

Mrs. Ulrich Frank Inviting All Adult Women to Join Non-Partisan Group

By Staff Reporter

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6—A League of Women Voters chapter will be organized here and temporary officers elected next Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ulrich A. Frank, 61 Leisure lane. The meeting will start at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Frank, active in starting the Levittown unit, is inviting all women of the community, "21 years of age or older, and willing and able to vote in the next election," to attend.

The League of Women Voters is strictly non-partisan, she said, with its purpose "to make women of today more politically conscious and aware of local, national and international governmental procedures."

The Philadelphia regional office of the League has already authorized the founding of a chapter here, Mrs. Frank said. Mrs. Parker Latham, of 156 Lakeside dr., acting publicity chairman of the new chapter, is attending a meeting of Newtown League of Women Voters today, and will return with instructions for organizing.

Mrs. Frank was formerly a member of the League in Cleveland, Ohio, where she was educational chairman of a sub-group.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank have lived in Levittown since Sept. 8, and made their home in Bristol from January to September. She is a second grade teacher in Tullytown School. Both are members of the Levittown Civic Association, where Frank is chairman of the Educational Committee. He is associated with Kaiser Metal Products, Inc., as engineer in charge of testing.

Both are natives of Germany who studied at the University of New Hampshire together. They have two children attending Tullytown school, Peter, eight, in fourth grade, and Karin, six, in second grade.

LEVITTOWN

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6 — The Levittown Civic Association will discuss and vote on its proposed constitution and by-laws at a meeting starting at eight o'clock tonight in Tullytown Fire station.

Special meetings to discuss the charter, are slated for the first Tuesday of each month. Tonight's meeting, originally scheduled for Nov. 4, was changed because the fire station was used as a polling place Tuesday.

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6 — Gerald R. Murphy sailed to the South Pole in Admiral Byrd's expedition late in 1946, and spent the Winter there. The following spring, when his ship, the U. S. S. Currikuck, a seaplane tender, returned north, to Phila., he met Betty, his wife, who lived in West Oak Lane.

They made their home in Rockledge after their marriage, in a ranch house they decorated themselves, with knotty pine. Since Sept. 16, they have lived in Levittown.

Mr. Murphy lived in Detroit, Mich., before entering the Navy. He was in service four years. He recently became associated with the Levittown Home Improvement Co., as salesman. When the Murphys' lived in the Phila. suburb, he was driver-salesman for the Freihofer Baking Co.

Mrs. Murphy is a graduate of Little Flower Catholic Girls High School, and formerly worked for the Fidelity-Phila. Trust Co.

Building model airplanes is the hobby of Mr. Murphy. He and his wife used to go roller skating often, before their two children started keeping them home. Linda Murphy is three years old, and Michael is eight weeks.

Bristol Borough

Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for president of the United States, won by a large majority over his opponent, Dwight D. Eisenhower, in an election Nov. 4th in Bristol high school. There were 355 votes cast for Stevenson and 199 for Eisenhower. The election was conducted by the 12A-12I Problems of Democracy class under direction of Charles Boyd. Both the Democrat and the Republican parties worked hard in the campaign. All had campaign buttons and literature given to them by local organizations.

In assembly, preceding the election, there were speeches on each candidate and an explanation of how to cast a ballot. After opening exercises had been read by David Lewis, president of Student Council, Mr. Boyd introduced the speakers. Joyce Versprille gave instructions on voting procedures. The speakers were as follows: Merits and Qualifications, Martha Berglund (Republican), Maybeth Brown (Democrat); Labor and Economic Issues, Allen Rosset (Republican), Lenore Purzner (Democrat); Foreign Policies, James Chichester (Republican), May Ann Boyd (Democrat); and Political Issues, "Trudy" DeKoyer (Republican), George Capriotti (Democrat).

Two members of the class represented the candidates for presidency. Albert Eelman represented Stevenson and Kent Sleath, a newcomer from Levittown, took the part of Eisenhower. Both boys made impressive speeches.

The students voted in special polling booths which were set up for the election. Mrs. William Harding aided the class in balloting and tallying of ballots. Kenneth Alfrey served as judge of the election. Those on the committee of registration were Janet Stephenson, Lester Gibbs, Patricia Barnhart, Evelyn Wallin, and Janis Anderson. Joseph Charlton and Ross Mothersbough were inspectors for the Republican party, and Louis White and Albert Abrams for the Democratic party. Augustine Costantini and Melvin Slaymaker were clerks.

County Survey Under Way To Learn Farmers' Needs

$116,000 Allotment Available for Distribution Based On Acreage in Areas

A survey to determine the needs of Bucks County farmers under the agricultural conservation program for 1953 is being continued this week.

Farmers throughout the county are being contacted by committeemen of the Department of Agriculture and Production Market Administration to arrive at a basis for distribution of more than $116,000 allocated for county use.

Clarence Kulp, director of the Bucks County office, said a change in the program has been made this year. In the past, he said, any program approved by the county committee could be established and all money used for that program.

This year, however, only 70 per cent of the money may be used for application of lime, super phosphate, green manure crops or winter cover crops. At least 30 per cent of the money must be spent on more-permanent-type practices, he explained.

These include seeding new pastures, applying potash, contour strip cropping, diversion terraces or drainage programs.

Under the aid program, the county is divided into 16 communities. Three committeemen are elected from each. In turn, these committeemen elect three men to serve on a county committee which administers the program. The county committee comprises Chairman Frank Roth, of Dublin; Michael Kimmenhour, of Ottsville, and Ralph Samuel, of Ivyland.

All farmers in the county will be contacted to determine their needs for 1953, said Kulp.

For distribution of the funds, the county will be divided into areas based on the number of farms and farm acreage in the division.

Farmers will be notified of the minimum and maximum payments they may expect later on, said the official, explaining that all farmers in the county are eligible to participate in the program.

No crop control is involved, said Kulp, adding that the farmer's only obligation is to carry through his part of the program before he may receive payment.

Kulp said some two-thirds of the farmers throughout the county are participating in the program.

Four From Area Complete A Civil Defense Course

Three from Bristol Council For Civil Defense, One From Eddington

Three members of Bristol Council for Civil Defense and an Eddington woman completed a two-day course at state civil defense training center, Ogontz Center, recently.

They are Mrs. Arthur Rago, Miss Margaret Galizia and Mrs. Anthony Fiorito, of Bristol Council, and Miss Mary Baumann, Eddington. Mrs. Rago and Miss Baumann are registered nurses.

Included in the course was instruction on organizing a Warden service, methods of establishing warden training in clubs and groups throughout this community, aspects of modern warfare, and a survey of world conditions which make Civil Defense a necessity.

The students worked on a "Rescue" street and, dressed in coveralls and helmets, were taught how to put out roaring fires of a household variety.

They were housed in Rydal Hall, a dormitory of Penn State College Extension School, where the school is located. Similar two-day courses alternate with Rescue courses. Both are available to any interested men and women throughout Pennsylvania. For details, write to Colonel Edwin H. Feather, Training Director, State Civil Defense Training Center, Ogontz Center, Penna.

Man from W. Virginia Killed When Car Rolls Over Him After Two-Car Crash Near Emilie; His Nephew and Host, Alton Parker, Bristol Terrace, Injured, As is Other Driver, Leo Dugan, Bristol

Police Say Wm. E. Parker, of Keyser City, Killed in Crash, Failed to Halt at "Stop" Sign at Oxford Valley-Tullytown and Emilie-Fallsington Roads — Two Cars Are Totally Wrecked.

EMILIE, Nov. 6 — A West Virginia man was killed last night at 8.45 and two others injured in a motor accident at the intersection of Oxford Valley-Tullytown and Emilie-Fallsington roads, near here.

According to police, William Elsey Parker, Keyser City, W. Va., was operating a vehicle north on Oxford Valley-Tullytown road and it is believed failed to stop at the stop sign at the intersection and collided with a vehicle travelling west on Emilie-Fallsington road operated by Leo Dugan, Pine street, Bristol.

The injured were removed to Mercer hospital, Trenton, N. J., by Bucks County Rescue Squad, where Wm. Parker was pronounced dead upon arrival. Riding with Parker was his nephew, Alton Parker, 1229 Barrett street, Bristol Terrace II, who sustained lacerations of head. William Parker, police say, was pinned under the car. Alton Parker was thrown out of the car by the impact. The vehicle turned over after the crash, and then rolled over Wm. Parker, crushing him to death.

The elder Parker, police said, had been visiting his nephew. Both vehicles were reported a total wreck and were towed from the scene.

Investigation was made by Officers Hepler and Robert Hibbs, of Bristol township.

Officer Herman Esterline, of Bristol borough, who was off duty at the time passed the scene shortly after the crash, and sent for aid.

Gov. John S. Fine to Have GOP-Dominated Assembly

But It Will Be Tough Sledding for Administration in House with Strength Cut

By John Paget
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 6—President-elect Eisenhower's sweep of Pennsylvania assures Gov. John S. Fine today of a Republican-dominated General Assembly in 1953 but it'll be tough sledding for the Administration in the House.

The Senate will be controlled by the GOP 32-18 but the story is different in the House where all revenue - raising legislation constitutionally must originate.

The reason is that despite the sweep in Tuesday's balloting, the GOP failed to add to its 1951 margin but instead lost 10 seats and trimmed its strength in the House to 110 seats or a slim five votes more than needed to pass bills. The Democrats will seat 98 members.

The Senate margin is comfortably safe for Republicans, although it is two votes shy of the constitutional 34 needed to confirm Fine's executive appointments without calling on the Democrats for help.

Editorial

WHAT EISENHOWER WILL FIND

This American nation is in far worse shape than is generally believed. All the political propaganda in the world, all the recent talk that "we never had it so good," doesn't change a single one of the basic facts.

We are far out-mortgaged with borrowings against future generations which probably will never attempt to repay the debt in anything except devalued dollars. That's inflation.

The debt totals approximately the true value of the nation as a going concern, and the debt cannot fail to rise substantially before it drops, since gigantic obligations to which the Truman regime committed the government have not yet shown up as deficits.

There is very little question that four years more of the New Deal, coupled with a supposed "vindication" of the past record and a "mandate" for more of the same, would have finished the job of bankrupting the country—that is to say, would have forced it into a sort of military receivership or to "dictatorship of the proletariat," which would have gone by the soft name of welfare-state, but would have been as tight a despotism as history records.

This was literally the last call. Had the Republicans lost, the economy of the country would have been smashed, and in its collapse would have gone down the constitutional pattern of free republican government.

The victory of General Eisenhower and the rest of the Republican ticket most literally snatched the American people from the jaws of disaster.

How clearly the American people perceive this no one can say with certainty. Unquestionably they see it at least, in the Biblical phrase, "as through a glass, darkly." Their vote Tuesday was a protest vote—a tidal wave of

Girl Scouts Continuing Fund Drive for New Camp

Site Near Quakertown Is Visited by 1200 Parents; Sales Held by Troops

Members of Girl Scout troops throughout the county are this week continuing their efforts to raise money for the organization's camp fund.

Plans call for the establishment of a camp on a site located near Quakertown on the Richlandtown-Weisel road.

Girl Scout officials said establishment of this porposed camp will be a substantial asset to the organization since it would be within easy driving distance from home.

More than 1,200 parents have visited the proposed camp site during recent weeks, said a Girl Scout spokesman.

Funds for the project have been raised through food and cookie sales, greeting card sales and other activities. Among troops who have already contributed to the fund and their leaders are:

Troop 75, Cornwells, Mrs. Stanley Vilius; Brownie Troop 52, Langhorne, Mrs. Raymond Gross; Brownie Troop 80, Langhorne, Mrs. H. L. Weber; Troop 113, Feasterville, Mrs. W. E. Comb; Troop 91, Penns Park, Mrs. Harry Herbott, III.; Troop 131, Perkasie, Mrs. Lloyd Lowery; Troop 32, Richlandtown, Mrs. Paul Reickenbach; and Brownie Troop 13, Doylestown, Mrs. Charles Emig.

Officials said the Brownies were able to match their older sisters in the amount of money turned over to the camp fund.

Borough Council Amends Sign Regulations Here

Fees Are Set for Permits And in Cases of Appeal To Adjustment Board

Bristol Borough Council last evening amended the zoning ordinance of 1951 to permit roof-top signs in the industrial district of Bristol. The change will take effect in ten days. Council also adopted a resolution, effective now, setting permit fees of $5 for signs, construction and use and occupancy and $15 in cases appealed to the Board of Adjustment.

The zoning amendment was adopted after a public hearing at which no objection was voiced. In reply to an inquiry by Borough Engineer Livingston Joyce, John Fullman, borough solicitor, said the change will not permit flashing electric signs on the rooftops, as they are banned by the zoning code. Fullman said signs will be allowed on roofs of all-type buildings in the industrial area.

Twelve members of Council attended the meeting. In the absence of Council President Francis J. Byers, Burgess I. J. Hetherington, Sr., opened the special session. George Duffy was elected president pro-tem for the evening, and Joseph Ferry was temporary secretary.

Other councilmen attending were Wm. H. Pearson, Edward J. Riley, Joseph DeLissio, John S. Lynn, Wm. J. Strobele, Nicholas F. Pascale, William W. Wallace, William J. McHugh and Michael Spinelli.

Manning of Steel Plant Is Mammoth Program, Jaycees Are Informed

Industrial Relations Head Outlines Selection And Training Practices

TULLYTOWN, Nov. 6 — Just as much careful planning is needed in building up the personnel which will man the mammoth Fairless Works of the U. S. Steel Company as was required in the construction of the plant, declared an executive last night.

Fred B. Lafferty, superintendent of industrial relations for the firm's Fairless Works, talked about the manpower problems in an address to members of the Lower Bucks County Junior Chamber of Commerce last night at Pennsbury Inn near here.

"Our undertaking, here in Bucks County," said Lafferty, "is unusual in the history of the steel industry, since, in the engineering, building and placing into production of this great new integrated steel mill, we have started with nothing more than a visionary and courageous idea.

"Within the short space of a few years we expect to be operating a huge, modern and efficient steel producing plant on a site which, less than two years ago, was a community of farms. Just as we started with a visionary idea of a new steel producing plant, so have we started from scratch to build a kind of management and production organization we feel would be best fitted to operate our new facilities.

"'Bearing in mind that United States Steel has expended many tens of thousands of dollars in buildings, equipment and tools for every employee of the Fairless Works," continued the speaker, "and that maximum efficiency in economy must be effected in our operations, it becomes necessary to exercise the same careful planning in the development of our operating organization as has characterized

Quakertown, Pa.—A 19-year-old youth, ill with pneumonia, left his bed today and fatally shot his father with a rifle in the kitchen of their house.

The victim was Joseph Ziemons, 60, a retired toolmaker.

After the shooting, police said the son, Werner Joseph Ziemons, returned to his first floor bedroom and got back into bed.

County Detective Fred J. Kohler said the shooting took place while the elder Ziemons was arguing at breakfast with his daughter-in-law, Mrs. Evelyn Ziemons, Werner's wife.

Kohler said young Ziemons fired the rifle from a distance of about eight feet, striking his father below the heart.

Bucks County Coroner J. T. Ferris ordered the body removed to a funeral home where an autopsy will be performed.

Young Ziemons was taken to the Community Hospital at Quakertown and placed under guard.

Authorities said a murder charge will be placed against him. The youth was employed as a cook at a diner operated by his mother, Mrs. Phillipine Ziemons, on the Bethlehem Pike near Quakertown.

Mrs. Ziemons was in the house at the time of the shooting. Also there was her daughter, Mrs. Maria Reed. Mrs. Ziemons has two other sons, Eric and Ewald, both in the service.

American Pilots Down One MIG-15, Damage Others

Seoul—American Sabrejet pilots downed one Russian-made MIG-15 and damaged at least four and possibly 11 other Communist jets over northwest Korea today in four furious battles involving 96 planes. The renewed air fighting, ending a three-day lull in sky combat, broke out shortly after South Korean troops repulsed a fresh 150-man Chinese attack against F-86 sharpshooters destroyed one MIG and damaged four of the sweptwing Red jets in two whirling dogfights Thursday morning in which 41 planes on both sides were engaged.

Consternation Reigns at Delhaas School Board Meeting Over Announcement of Plan To Incorporate Levittown Into A Borough

'No Right to Invest in Something We Know Nothing About,' Says Director

By Staff Reporter

Consternation reigned in the Delhaas school board meeting last night over the announcement made Saturday that steps will be taken to incorporate the Levittown settlement into a borough.

The feelings board members expressed at the meeting in Delhaas high school building, might be summed up in the expression of William Clifton, speaking of proposed permanent school facilities for Levittown, "We don't have any right to invest public funds in something we know nothing about."

Nearly every board member spoke out concerning the latest reported move in the actions of the builders of the new community.

The board heard a report of students attending the Delhaas school as of the first of October. These enrollment figures are those used in determining the share in the Delhas budget which must be paid by Tullytown.

A request for information concerning the school board and the schools under its jurisdiction from the chairman of the educational committee of Levittown Civic Association was read before the board. The committee plan of conducting the joint board meeting was discussed, need for a football field was emphasized, and one teacher was hired to teach in the Delhaas system.

Two members of the Levittown Civic Association, Elbert Kohli, and Albert Eastburn were present at the meeting in an attempt to get better acquainted with the board and its actions.

The report that an attempt is expected to be made to get borough status for Levittown, brought sharp fire from both Bristol township and

Ike Has Solid Backing For Clean-Up Program

Will Seek Solution to War In Korea Before Taking Office in Washington

By James Lee
(I. N. S. Staff Correspondent)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 6 — President-elect Eisenhower today won solid congressional backing for his Republican "peace and clean-up" program and indicated that he will seek an on-the-spot solution of the Korean war before his inauguration.

Sent to the White House by the heaviest popular outpouring in the nation's history, Gen. Ike parlayed his personal landslide into GOP control of the House of Representatives and an even division of the Senate, with Vice-President - elect Nixon holding the deciding vote.

The 83rd Congress, which will welcome Eisenhower as the nation's first Republican president since 1932, shapes up with 225 GOP House members, seven more than the 218 required for control.

In the Senate, defeat of Michigan's Democratic Sen. Blair Moody by Rep. Charles E. Potter, legless veteran of World War II., gave the GOP 48 seats. Ex-Republican Wayne Morse of Oregon, now listed as an Independent, is expected to vote with the Democrats, but in tie votes Nixon is the "equalizer."

Eisenhower, on the basis of the latest returns, swamped Democratic nominee Adlai Stevenson of Illinois 442 to 89 in the electoral voting, carried 39 states to Stevenson's nine, and in the record-shattering popular poll amassed 31,925,143 votes to Stevenson's 25,594,317.

NO SCANDAL

Defenders of big-time college football are entitled to a sigh of relief. It was disclosed that an attempt had been made to bribe three University of Maryland players to shave the score in the game with LSU but the players had immediately reported the offer.

So there was no scandal to call attention to football at Maryland, which is a large-scale enterprise returning financial rewards and valuable advertising at the cost of what is known as overemphasis, including special consideration to football men.

There was no scandal and those persons with a stake in the status quo will be quick to point out that the honesty of three players was all that was needed to prevent it. And that is something that cannot be refuted. But there is more to be said.

The fact that a bribe was offered is proof that the conditions that produced the shocking basketball scandals exposed last winter are still in existence. If these conditions do exist, then, sooner or later, that sorry story will be repeated.

Like causes produce like effects. There is no getting away from that law. If gamblers found it profitable to corrupt college basketball players before big games were played, then they will try to corrupt college football players if they think they can turn a dishonest penny by fixing a gridiron contest.

And in time they will find one or several weaklings who, in order to eke out their incomes from playing the game, will agree to betray their schools, teams, coaches and teammates.

If such sordid betrayals are to be prevented, the surest way is to remove their causes. The medicine may seem harsh to youngsters who want to capitalize on their athletic ability, to coaches who earn fat salaries by producing winning teams, to college heads who have used prowess on the gridiron to get their schools fame, students and money.

But all that is necessary is the will to put sports like football and basketball on the plane occupied by track and baseball. It is being done in some colleges.

A Cleveland woman won a divorce because her husband refused to provide a veterinarian for her horse. Other women are dissatisfied because their husbands do not provide Cadillacs for their transportation.

Kansas is harvesting a $600,000,000 wheat crop, which would be enough money to run the federal government a few hours on some quiet Sunday afternoon.

Congress has adjourned and members have returned home to look after their political fences. Many will undoubtedly find them badly in need of repair, in view of the tax situation.

What Eisenhower Will Find

repudiation of nearly everything the Fair Deal has come to stand for.

The manner in which all chief protagonists of the "new order" and the welfare-state concepts were singled out for special punishment is proof of the basic disturbance of mind the public has felt. DiSalle, Benton—call the roll, and note how the shining targets of left-wingishness got the works from the voters!

The American people lowered the boom on a twenty-year experiment which, in many aspects, has been alien to our own national concepts of propriety and sound government.

As has happened a thousand times in lesser fields, the moment someone stood up courageously and opposed the philosophy of the New Deal, it collapsed like a house of cards.

What General Eisenhower will find when he comes to sit in the White House as President depends in great degree upon what the American people expect.

If they look upon him primarily as their rescuer and champion, who has saved them from catastrophes akin to those suffered by scores of other free peoples around the world—then the new President's path will be rose-strewn and happy.

But if the people expect some sort of magic—if they expect to see the Korean tangle solved overnight, and the dollar's value restored by a single ingenious law, and the fading status of Uncle Sam's international prestige revived by a gesture; if they expect that we can become a solid, solvent united nation once again without some equivalent of Churchill's "blood, sweat, toil and tears"—then disappointments are inevitably ahead.

In the demoralized, sundered state of national affairs, there is neither the wherewithal to finance glowing new schemes of artificial prosperity and grandeur, nor is there a sufficient workable majority in Congress to put through any program except one so sound and simple and practical that members of all parties can cheerfully indorse it.

General Eisenhower comes, in reality, more as a fire department than as an architect. The House of Government is burning down, and the fire must be extinguished, and the wreckage appraised, and the extent of the damage estimated, before there can be serious thought concerning future interior decoration.

Deut. 33:27 — "The eternal God is your dwelling place, and underneath are the everlasting arms."

O Most Loving Father, Who willest us to give thanks for all things, to dread nothing but the loss of Thee, and to cast all our care on Thee, Who carest for us; Preserve us from faithless fears and worldly anxieties, and grant that no clouds of this mortal life may hide from us the light of that love which is immortal, and which Thou hast manifested unto us in Thy Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Manning of Steel Plant

the creation of our physical facilities.

"To this end, starting with our top management and supervisory organization, extreme care has been exercised to hand-pick every man for his individual responsibility in the organization structure of the Fairless Works. This has been no small task, since, as I am sure you will realize, the limited number of management and supervisory positions available at Fairless Works during its initial program were much sought after among experienced and highly competent men throughout the industry.

"They were quick to see that a place in our organization would open up opportunity unlimited for development in their careers in the steel industry. There were many applicants for every position in our management organization, and many qualified people were considered for almost every job before the final selection was made. As a consequence of the care which was exercised in the selection of our people, we are confident that we have assembled the best qualified operating team to be found anywhere in the steel industry.

"One day a week, all day, for ten weeks, members of our top management organization attended training conferences in which top-level officials of United States Steel Company and department heads discussed in great detail every conceivable phase of policy, procedure and methods, as well as the most advanced operating practices, which bear upon the many facets of management and operation of a modern steel mill. Training programs of this kind are not unusual in the steel industry, but never before in the history of the industry has such a program been designed to run the full gamut of management responsibility. The result is that members of our management team assumed their new responsibilities at Fairless Works sharing the same knowledge, the identical purpose, and mutuality of interest in the development of an efficient operating team.

"Very much the same type of program has been developed and put to use in the training of other supervisory personnel from the level of general foreman down to the turn foreman in the various departments of the plant."

Lafferty told the group of other various phases of the personnel program, including the methods of selection of persons for the many posts and the methods of training those selected.

Consternation Reigns

Tullytown borough members of the joint board. The status of the John Fitch school, presently under construction in the Stonybrook section of Levittown was questioned by board members.

Clarence Young, secretary, explained that the school was undertaken as an obligation of Bristol township school board and the authority and would be built, but that the status of its operation within a new borough would be in question.

The whole proposed-borough-status-for-Levittown matter was questioned by William Parr who said that he thought that if the matter ever came into the courts, the courts would certainly take into consideration whether such a move would put Tullytown in a "bad financial position."

Parr further questioned the whole affair when he said he thought that "after all it isn't up to him (Levitt) it's up to the people living there."

Taylor brought up the fact that the John Fitch School had been started and ground had not yet been broken for the George Taylor School in Croydon.

"How do you suppose other people feel about building first in the new sections?" he asked. "We were under extreme pressure to put up other schools before the John Fitch school," he said.

"In the spring," continued Taylor, "Levitt told us he had absolutely no intent to incorporate."

Young complained that it was another situation that arose from the fact that they had nothing in writing from Levitt.

"Another time we had nothing in writing," he continued, "was when we were promised the community building for use as classrooms." According to Young it was in August when Levitt advised the board that the community building could not be used for classrooms, and that the school would have to make use of the Wistar Institute.

"Then he told us he would arrange to help provide a car pool," stated Young.

As a result of the failure of the car pool idea the board was "forced" to go out and buy school buses, Young explained.

"The cost of those buses meant two mills on our tax overnight," commented William Vetter.

Figures on enrollment at the Delhaas high school as of October 1, and which are used to compute the share of the cost of the school which must be borne by Bristol township and TuHytown borough showed that as of October 1, there was a total enrollment of 989 children at the school (this figure is now past the 1,000 mark), of this total 930 attend from Bristol township and 59 from Tullytown borough. Levittown accounts for 35 of these students. Of the 59 Tullytown contributes, 25 are from Levittown-Tullytown, and the remainder are from Tullytown outside Levittown.

These figures show that 94 per cent of the students are from Bristol township and approximately 6% are from Tullytown borough. It will be on this basis that 1953 budget costs will be allocated.

Total budget for the present school years is $213,023, out of which Bristol township pays $198,991, and Tullytown borough pays $18,032.

Ulrich A. Frank, 61 Leisure Lane, Levittown, chairman of the educational committee of Levittown Civic Association, requested detailed information from the school board concerning its past actions and the problems confronting it in the future. The board expressed that it would like to answer the problems but felt that it could not take the time from a regular meeting night. The Levittowners were referred to the school code and laws of boroughs and townships, and contact the Bristol Township Civic Association, because they were familiar with much that had taken place in the joint school board.

The proposal to conduct joint board meetings on a committee basis was tabled for the time being when members of the Tullytown board said that they thought they would be able to attend the Delhaas joint board meetings.

Miller spoke out in favor of a football field for the 1953 games. Thomas W. Elliott, of 3670 Newport road, West Bristol, was hired to teach in the Delhaas School.

Democrats, as in the past, will use the two votes as a lever to pry favor from Republicans.

Because of the free-wheeling nature of the House, as a result of its relatively large membership, the five votes will not give the next leadership much leeway. The ever-present bogey of a bolt by self-styled Independents, coupled with the usual absences due to illness or press of private affairs, will force the GOP leadership to carefully chart its course.

Electricity is still one of the lowest priced necessities in the family budget.

Electricity quietly and efficiently does the hard household jobs that once chained you at home hours on end. Electric power makes your home a happier, more interesting place to live.

Actually, with electricity handling so many chores, you gain more time to spend with your family, your friends, and important community activities.

In days to come, as always, electricity's continually widening benefits will be yours through the services of a tax-paying, business-managed company. This is the American way!

4-H Achievement Day Is Set for November 8th

482 Bucks County Girls and Boys to Review and Point Up Accomplishments

November 8th is National 4-H Achievement Day, a day when emphasis is on 4-H Clubs, the largest rural youth organization in the world. The more than two million club members in the United States, Alaska, and Puerto Rico (almost 29,000 of them in Penna.) have completed a year's effort toward their goals.

In Bucks county, the 482 boys and girls in agricultural and homemaking clubs will review and point up the accomplishments of their projects.

The homemaking project of Clothing, "It's Fun to Cook," Dinner Club, and "When You Entertain" were completed in late summer. Ninety per cent of the girls participating completed their projects.

There are 16 different agricultural projects including such projects as dairy, poultry, baby beef, garden, bees, field corn and potatoes.

Community service is an important activity of most clubs. Some of the services they have done are: cleaned community buildings and grounds; made garments for Needlework Guild; sent cookies and afghan to Valley Forge Veterans Hospital; gave canned foods to hospitals; collected food for family whose home was destroyed by fire; participated in community fairs through booths, exhibits, and fashion revue; took part in the 4th of July and Christmas parade. Other clubs have contributed money to such worthwhile causes as the County Blind Association, CARE, Easter seals, local fire companies, the cancer crusade, etc.

Club members held bake sales to raise money to send girls to camp. One club was able to buy used sewing machines with their profits.

Bucks county 4-H'ers participated in county, state and national events as well as those of local clubs. Among these were home economics and agricultural district camps held with other counties, leadership school and club week at State College, National Club Congress in Chicago and National 4-H Club Week in Washington, D. C.

Twelve local clubs have made contributions ($52.71) to the National 4-H Center in Washington, D. C.

4-H activities are carried on through the Bucks County Agricultural Extension Association whose representatives are: William F. Greenawalt, County Agent; Paul T. Rothrock, assistant county agent; Frances Vannoy, home economics representative, and Gertrude Griffin, assistant home economics representative.

Much of the success of club leadership is due to the efforts of local men and women in the various 4-H neighborhoods. Those clubs which have been active in 1952 are: Buckingham, Durham, Edgewood, Falls, Great Swamp, Hilltown, Newtown, Newville, North Penn, Richboro, Unami, Carversville, Danboro, Feasterville, Point Pleasant, Southampton, Springtown.

League of Women Voters To Organize In Levittown

Mrs. Ulrich Frank Inviting All Adult Women to Join Non-Partisan Group

By Staff Reporter

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6—A League of Women Voters chapter will be organized here and temporary officers elected next Tuesday night at the home of Mrs. Ulrich A. Frank, 61 Leisure lane. The meeting will start at 8:30 p. m.

Mrs. Frank, active in starting the Levittown unit, is inviting all women of the community, "21 years of age or older, and willing and able to vote in the next election," to attend.

The League of Women Voters is strictly non-partisan, she said, with its purpose "to make women of today more politically conscious and aware of local, national and international governmental procedures."

The Philadelphia regional office of the League has already authorized the founding of a chapter here, Mrs. Frank said. Mrs. Parker Latham, of 156 Lakeside dr., acting publicity chairman of the new chapter, is attending a meeting of Newtown League of Women Voters today, and will return with instructions for organizing.

Mrs. Frank was formerly a member of the League in Cleveland, Ohio, where she was educational chairman of a sub-group.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank have lived in Levittown since Sept. 8, and made their home in Bristol from January to September. She is a second grade teacher in Tullytown School. Both are members of the Levittown Civic Association, where Frank is chairman of the Educational Committee. He is associated with Kaiser Metal Products, Inc., as engineer in charge of testing.

Both are natives of Germany who studied at the University of New Hampshire together. They have two children attending Tullytown school, Peter, eight, in fourth grade, and Karin, six, in second grade.

LEVITTOWN

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6 — The Levittown Civic Association will discuss and vote on its proposed constitution and by-laws at a meeting starting at eight o'clock tonight in Tullytown Fire station.

Special meetings to discuss the charter, are slated for the first Tuesday of each month. Tonight's meeting, originally scheduled for Nov. 4, was changed because the fire station was used as a polling place Tuesday.

LEVITTOWN, Nov. 6 — Gerald R. Murphy sailed to the South Pole in Admiral Byrd's expedition late in 1946, and spent the Winter there. The following spring, when his ship, the U. S. S. Currikuck, a seaplane tender, returned north, to Phila., he met Betty, his wife, who lived in West Oak Lane.

They made their home in Rockledge after their marriage, in a ranch house they decorated themselves, with knotty pine. Since Sept. 16, they have lived in Levittown.

Mr. Murphy lived in Detroit, Mich., before entering the Navy. He was in service four years. He recently became associated with the Levittown Home Improvement Co., as salesman. When the Murphys' lived in the Phila. suburb, he was driver-salesman for the Freihofer Baking Co.

Mrs. Murphy is a graduate of Little Flower Catholic Girls High School, and formerly worked for the Fidelity-Phila. Trust Co.

Building model airplanes is the hobby of Mr. Murphy. He and his wife used to go roller skating often, before their two children started keeping them home. Linda Murphy is three years old, and Michael is eight weeks.

Bristol Borough

Adlai E. Stevenson, the Democratic candidate for president of the United States, won by a large majority over his opponent, Dwight D. Eisenhower, in an election Nov. 4th in Bristol high school. There were 355 votes cast for Stevenson and 199 for Eisenhower. The election was conducted by the 12A-12I Problems of Democracy class under direction of Charles Boyd. Both the Democrat and the Republican parties worked hard in the campaign. All had campaign buttons and literature given to them by local organizations.

In assembly, preceding the election, there were speeches on each candidate and an explanation of how to cast a ballot. After opening exercises had been read by David Lewis, president of Student Council, Mr. Boyd introduced the speakers. Joyce Versprille gave instructions on voting procedures. The speakers were as follows: Merits and Qualifications, Martha Berglund (Republican), Maybeth Brown (Democrat); Labor and Economic Issues, Allen Rosset (Republican), Lenore Purzner (Democrat); Foreign Policies, James Chichester (Republican), May Ann Boyd (Democrat); and Political Issues, "Trudy" DeKoyer (Republican), George Capriotti (Democrat).

Two members of the class represented the candidates for presidency. Albert Eelman represented Stevenson and Kent Sleath, a newcomer from Levittown, took the part of Eisenhower. Both boys made impressive speeches.

The students voted in special polling booths which were set up for the election. Mrs. William Harding aided the class in balloting and tallying of ballots. Kenneth Alfrey served as judge of the election. Those on the committee of registration were Janet Stephenson, Lester Gibbs, Patricia Barnhart, Evelyn Wallin, and Janis Anderson. Joseph Charlton and Ross Mothersbough were inspectors for the Republican party, and Louis White and Albert Abrams for the Democratic party. Augustine Costantini and Melvin Slaymaker were clerks.

County Survey Under Way To Learn Farmers' Needs

$116,000 Allotment Available for Distribution Based On Acreage in Areas

A survey to determine the needs of Bucks County farmers under the agricultural conservation program for 1953 is being continued this week.

Farmers throughout the county are being contacted by committeemen of the Department of Agriculture and Production Market Administration to arrive at a basis for distribution of more than $116,000 allocated for county use.

Clarence Kulp, director of the Bucks County office, said a change in the program has been made this year. In the past, he said, any program approved by the county committee could be established and all money used for that program.

This year, however, only 70 per cent of the money may be used for application of lime, super phosphate, green manure crops or winter cover crops. At least 30 per cent of the money must be spent on more-permanent-type practices, he explained.

These include seeding new pastures, applying potash, contour strip cropping, diversion terraces or drainage programs.

Under the aid program, the county is divided into 16 communities. Three committeemen are elected from each. In turn, these committeemen elect three men to serve on a county committee which administers the program. The county committee comprises Chairman Frank Roth, of Dublin; Michael Kimmenhour, of Ottsville, and Ralph Samuel, of Ivyland.

All farmers in the county will be contacted to determine their needs for 1953, said Kulp.

For distribution of the funds, the county will be divided into areas based on the number of farms and farm acreage in the division.

Farmers will be notified of the minimum and maximum payments they may expect later on, said the official, explaining that all farmers in the county are eligible to participate in the program.

No crop control is involved, said Kulp, adding that the farmer's only obligation is to carry through his part of the program before he may receive payment.

Kulp said some two-thirds of the farmers throughout the county are participating in the program.

Four From Area Complete A Civil Defense Course

Three from Bristol Council For Civil Defense, One From Eddington

Three members of Bristol Council for Civil Defense and an Eddington woman completed a two-day course at state civil defense training center, Ogontz Center, recently.

They are Mrs. Arthur Rago, Miss Margaret Galizia and Mrs. Anthony Fiorito, of Bristol Council, and Miss Mary Baumann, Eddington. Mrs. Rago and Miss Baumann are registered nurses.

Included in the course was instruction on organizing a Warden service, methods of establishing warden training in clubs and groups throughout this community, aspects of modern warfare, and a survey of world conditions which make Civil Defense a necessity.

The students worked on a "Rescue" street and, dressed in coveralls and helmets, were taught how to put out roaring fires of a household variety.

They were housed in Rydal Hall, a dormitory of Penn State College Extension School, where the school is located. Similar two-day courses alternate with Rescue courses. Both are available to any interested men and women throughout Pennsylvania. For details, write to Colonel Edwin H. Feather, Training Director, State Civil Defense Training Center, Ogontz Center, Penna.
